RE: SADDAM, Aroua

OFFENSE: False Statements in an Immigration Proceeding, a Class D Felony.

SENTENCE: Five (5) years probation and a $100 special assessment.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS:

1) The defendant shall be on Home Detention, which shall include electronic monitoring at the defendant's expense, for a period of FOUR (4) CONSECUTIVE MONTHS (120 days). During this time, she shall remain at her place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation officer.

2) The defendant shall maintain a telephone at her place of residence without party lines, telephone answering machines, a modem, call forwarding, caller ID, call waiting, portable cordless telephones or any other devices or services that may interfere with the proper functioning of the electronic monitoring equipment for the active period. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device, follow electronic monitoring procedures, and pay the cost of the electronic monitoring, all as directed by the probation officer.

ADJUSTMENT TO SUPERVISION:

On April 8, 2009, the defendant was sentenced to five (5) years probation for False Statements in an Immigration Proceeding. Immediately following her sentencing, the conditions of supervision were reviewed with the defendant by the undersigned.

The defendant's adjustment to supervision has been unsatisfactory. On October 28, 2009, the defendant was arrested by the Greenville County Sheriff's Office and charged with Possess or Use a Sawed-off Shotgun or Sawed-off Rifle. Her preliminary hearing is scheduled for December 3, 2009, in the Greenville County, Virginia, General District Court. In addition, the defendant has submitted three late monthly supervision reports, and she has been convicted of Speeding in Virginia Beach.

The defendant resides alone in Newport News and is a student at Thomas Nelson Community College in Hampton. The defendant is employed as a waitress at her family's restaurant in Virginia Beach and also works part-time in selling home improvement services. The $100 special assessment was satisfied on June 10, 2009. The four-month term of home detention/electronic monitoring was completed on August 28, 2009.

VIOLATIONS: The following violations are submitted for the Court's consideration.
